

On April 6, as part of the 54th All-Russian Scientific Conference “Science Week 2020” on-line, a meeting of the joint section “Propaedeutics of Internal Diseases and Radiation Diagnostics” was held for English-speaking students. The jury unanimously decided to publish in open access all scientific reports that were prepared by students of the medical faculty.

We will familiarize you with the results of the jury voting and the minutes of the section meeting later. Follow the news!
