

On December 1, 2021, in the assembly hall of the Faculty of Medicine, diplomas and gratitude were solemnly handed over to the participants and prize-winners of the conference of the section of propaedeutics of internal diseases in English, held within the framework of the All-Russian festival of student youth "Man. Citizen. Scientist 2021".

The conference was attended by 23 students of the Faculty of Medicine, studying in English, 14 reports were presented.

Senior teachers Ksenofontova Alla Gennadievna, Vasilyeva Lidiya Nikolaevna congratulated the winners, wished all participants good health, excellent studies, future research activities. We thank the participants and winners of the conference for their active participation and wish them further creative success.

